EMPLOYMENT LAW -
THE LAW AND PRACTICE OF REMOTE WORKING

HALF DAY VIRTUAL FACILITATOR-LED WORKSHOP
5 MAY 2021

The impact of Covid-19 on the employment relationship has been enormous. Remote working is normalised and some employers and some employees want it to stay.

As the Oireachtas considers the Working from Home (Covid-19) Bill 2020, the focus is on what steps employers can take to ensure legal compliance and future proof their remote working practices.

In this half-day online workshop Sharon Dillon-Lyons BL will explore:

- Remote working and Covid-19, custom, practice and employee expectations;

- The contract of employment and amending to accommodate remote working;

- Duty of care and supervision and health and safety considerations;

- Blurred lines; working time compliance, the right to disconnect and stressed employees, best practice approaches and legislative requirements.

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

This half-day online workshop will take place on 5 May 2021. It will be delivered using MS Teams, will commence at 10:00 a.m. and conclude at 1:00 p.m.

Participants will be advised to connect on the day from a PC or Laptop. They should have Wi-Fi, Webcam and Microphone available so that they can fully participate in the online workshop activities and discussion.

WORKSHOP LEADER

Sharon Dillon-Lyons BL has extensive experience of advising and representing employers on all aspects of employment law. Sharon is also an Associate Specialist of the Institute of Public Administrations HRM Training & Consultancy Unit.

WORKSHOP FEE

The cost of attendance at this half-day online workshops is €200 per person.
