EXHIBITION

The Vienna Model – Housing for the 21st Century City

All day, Thursday 4 July 2019

The Vienna Model of Housing is internationally regarded for its continued achievement of sustainable, high quality residential development using a cost-rental approach that in effect delivers housing for all.

This inspiring exhibition is being brought to the conference. The exhibition centres on sixty prototypical Viennese projects from the last hundred years, with a special focus on the public art that has complemented Vienna's housing since the First Republic. It presents architectural images and information, videos and works of art on scaffolding arranged across ten chapters.
