

IPA LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SERVICE GUIDE

Library Tel: 01-2403625 (Direct Line). Email: library@ipa.ie, Twitter: @library_ip

August 2021

WELCOME TO THE IPA LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SERVICE

The Institute's Library provides information, reference and lending services to students, members and staff of the Institute. The collection consists of books, journals, electronic databases, reports, statistics and official publications in the area of public management and related subjects. As a special library, this has afforded the opportunity to develop a comprehensive and unique collection.

USING THE LIBRARY

Under the current working restrictions Library staff will provide remote assistance to students Monday - Thursday 10am-8pm, Friday 10am-5pm and most Saturdays 10.30am-2.30pm during the academic year. Library staff will be onsite Monday-Friday 10am-4pm to allow for the posting of books and scanning/emailing of articles/chapters. At present it is not possible for students to visit the Library in person.

- The library staff can offer help and guidance where appropriate and also provide one to one phone training sessions. You can also request a one to one information session with a member of our library staff when in the IPA.
- For opening times and general information on library services please see our FAQs section located on the library's web page www.ipa.ie/library

Library Catalogue

- The Library's catalogue can be accessed remotely on the IPA's website at www.ipa.ie/library. Further information available at the end of the guide.
- The Library's online catalogue and the internet may be accessed via a number of terminals. These are located in the library reference room. Individual instruction in locating information via the library catalogue is available from staff on duty at the issue desk.

Information Services

1. The Library provides a general information service to assist students in locating information for assignments. If you do not know of particular books or articles on your topic the library staff will assist you in finding appropriate information. Please do not hesitate to ask - by phone, E-mail or in person.

Electronic Databases

- There are two electronic databases available from the Library, they are EBSCO Business Source Premier and Emerald Insight. External access is available via Moodle. The only login required is your student number.
- The links to the two databases are located under LIBRARY RESOURCES located at the bottom right hand side of the screen on Moodle.
- You can also individually access the databases using external access logins and passwords. Please contact the library for them.

Journals A-Z

A list of electronic Journals the library subscribes to is available under Journals A-Z on the library catalogue and under LIBRARY RESOURCES on Moodle.

Should you require access to a journal article from any of the journals published by Wiley, Sage and Taylor and Francis on the Journals A-Z list please contact the library issue desk (01-2403625) or email library@ipa.ie.

QUICK SEARCH TIPS

Before starting your search consider the various keywords and key terms that are or maybe relevant to your particular topic.

- Step 1 Start your search with the IPA Library catalogue to check for books and journal articles. A journal article will be indicated by JIS (journal in stock) in the Dewey Number field. A book will be indicated by a Dewey Class Number - 658.3. Any record to a journal article found in the catalogue can be downloaded from the Journals A-Z list via Moodle.
- Step 2 Check the listing of Journals A-Z under Library Resources on Moodle . Note any journals that may be directly relevant to your subject area and browse.
- Step 3 Access the library databases EBSCO Business Source Premier and Emerald Insight via Moodle to conduct a search on your topic of interest.
- Step 4 Check out Google Scholar www.scholar.google.com/ to locate journal articles, note some may be available to download for free, for others there will be a charge from the publisher.